Dear Family:

So far, I have only introduced /ar/ and /or/ in the r-controlled syllable type. The other three vowels e, i, u, are also affected by the letter r. All three (er, ir, and ur) have the same sound /ər/. The keywords are:

These r-controlled combinations are not usually difficult for reading but they can be tricky for spelling. When you dictate a word that has an /ər/ sound, and your child is not sure if the letter should be an er, ir or ur, use a dictionary in order to check for the correct spelling.

Is it time for a trip to the library? You may want to select one of the following books. They might be a bit more difficult, but can be read by a second grader with your help.

The Stories Julian Tells by Ann Cameron (Random House, 1987) Amber Brown Is Not a Crayon by Paula Danzinger (Putnam & Grosset, 1994)

Eddie's Menagerie by Carolyn Haywood (Morrow, 1978)

Sincerely,

Follow These 5 Steps:

- 1. Dictate the word or sentence.
- 2. Have your child repeat it.
- 3. Have your child write it.
- 4. Read the word or sentence again and have your child proofread it carefully.
- 5. Check his/her work.
