What have we been learning?

January-February

Writing (6 Brackett only):

In Writer's Workshop, we wrapped up our narrative unit and began the next unit based on informative writing. We are using what we've learned in our workshop to help produce our country reports.

*Friendly reminder, tri-fold boards must be created at home. Requirements are posted under classroom documents on webpage.

Spelling:

Spelling lists change weekly in accordance with our Reading Street short stories. Most quizzes are Friday, unless told otherwise.

Reading:

Lately, we have been examining expository text. We explored the fascinating world of terracotta warriors, and next will be diving into space and the universe.

Announcements:

A few things to look forward to-

2/7 Half Day (noon dismissal) Professional Development

2/12 Tri-folds due

2/14 Country Fair! 12:30 Roderick Cafeteria

Language Arts:

We have been focusing on nouns and Greek and Latin roots. More specifically, regular and irregular plural nouns along with possessive nouns have been our main focus.

Social Studies:

We are wrapping up our Central America unit with our final review this week. Next week, we will assess our learning with a chapter 8 review. That date is TBD. Get ready for some South American fun for our next unit!
