

Classroom Guidelines

1. Students must promptly and cooperatively follow the classroom teacher's and/or specialist's directions and classroom rules.
2. Students should complete their work to the best of their ability and should allow each of their classmates to do the same by respecting the rights of all individuals within the school environment.
3. In order to promote fairness and common courtesy to fellow students and adults children will raise their hands to be recognized.