

A Homograph is a word that is spelled the same as another word but has a different meaning and sometimes a different pronunciation.

Homographs

Lesson 7

present

present

The master of ceremonies presented the award to the student who improved the most in the course of the school year.

*present (verb): 1. to make a gift to <presented me with a watch>
2. to give or hand over with ceremony <present a medal>*

Sentence Starter:

I was presented with ...

present

present

I was so lucky to be present when the Red Sox won the World Series in 2004 and broke the Curse of the Bambino.

present: (verb) to be there in person

Sentence starter:

I was present at...

Evelyn Tumanoff and her 5th-grade students at Roosevelt Elementary School

minute

minute

Minute pieces of sand were stuck in the keyboard and that is why some of the keys wouldn't work.

minute: mi n(y)üt (adjective) very small

Sentence starter: A minute piece of ... got stuck in ...

minute

minute

You will have three minutes to complete the obstacle course.

minute: (noun) the 60th part of an hour of time

Sentence starter: I need ... minutes to complete

...

refuse

refuse

The refuse is polluting the river so volunteers are going to clean it.

refuse: ref- yüs (noun) garbage, worthless things : TRASH

Sentence starter: Please put the refuse ...

refuse

refuse

The dog refused to eat his grain as he waited for table scraps.

refuse: (verb) to say you won't do something, an unwillingness to do something

Sentence starter: The young child refused to ...

invalid

invalid

The doctor told the invalid some good news about her health.

invalid: (noun) someone who is sick or disabled

 The word isn't often used but you should know what it means because the word may be used in reading passages.

Sentence starter: The nurse helped the invalid...

invalid

invalid

The gift card was so old that it is now invalid and can't be used.

invalid: (adjective) when something is no longer in force or not in e:

Sentence Starter: The code was invalid so...

object

object

The college students were peacefully demonstrating because they were objecting to the new policies of the university.

object : (verb) oppose something

Sentence Starter: ... was(were) objecting to ... because...

object

object

Collecting objects like seashells, baseball cards, and stamps can be a lot of fun.

object: (noun) something you can see or touch

Sentence starter: The objects I collect are...

